

Empty Heart

The Dead Daisies

I feel like I'm lost, and I won't be found
The wind is blowing through me, I ain't lying
You know this place is cold, ain't no sun around
My luck just turns to dust, as it crumbles down
Falling deep and never to be found, oh yeah

This is a song from an empty heart
Letting you know I ain't torn apart
Lingering long on my lips as we parted
This is a song from an empty heart, oh yeah

There's something on my lips girl, it tastes of you
I forget what I just put you through
It's all gone, I'm moving on to something new

This is a song from an empty heart
Just letting you know I'm not torn apart
Lingering long on my lips as we parted
This is a song from an empty heart

It's a song, it's a song, it's a song, from an empty heart
The letter that I'm sending
Looking for another place
And the answers that are waiting
I know I'm gonna find my way

This is a song from an empty heart
Letting you know I ain't torn apart
Lingering long on my lips as we parted
This is a song from an empty heart

This is a song from an empty heart
Just letting you know I'm not torn apart
Lingering long on my lips as we parted
This is a song from an empty heart
It's a song
Yeah, it's a song
From an empty heart
