

Holy Ground

The Dead Daisies

When the sun falls down
And the full moon rise
Now you will be found
When you open your eyes
Oh, look at my face
The fear it is long gone
No time to waste
As we ride down to Avalon

Oh Lord, now the dream is on fire
No more, and I yell down the wire
I roar, and I couldn't get higher

Deep inside of me
Can't shake the memory
On Holy Ground
It's my liberty
Can't shake the memory
Your Grace is found
Its my serenity
Can't shake the memory
I'm homeward bound
Deep inside of me
Can't shake the memory
On Holy Ground

Transformation, you gotta let go
Soul vibration down in the fire glow
Realization, it's my belief
Expectation, in like a thief

Oh Lord, now the dream is on fire
No more, and I yell down the wire
I roar, and I couldn't get higher

Deep inside of me
Can't shake the memory
On Holy Ground
It's my liberty
Can't shake the memory
Your Grace is found
My serenity
Can't shake the memory
I'm homeward bound
Deep inside of me
Can't shake the memory
On Holy Ground

Deep inside of me
Can't shake the memory

Deep inside of me
Can't shake the memory
On Holy Ground
Its my liberty
Can't shake the memory
Your Grace is found

My serenity
Can't shake the memory
I'm homeward bound
Deep inside of me
Can't shake the memory
On Holy Ground

Can't shake the memory
On Holy Ground
Can't shake the memory
On Holy Ground
