

Midnight Moses

The Dead Daisies

Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey

Underneath the green veranda
Singing love songs to mad Miranda
They call me the midnight Moses
Everything I touch, is coming up roses

Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey

Tell me where I'm going
I got know way of knowing
I wish I was a forest ranger
Singing danger danger danger

Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey

I had an afternoon fever
When I flew out to Geneva
I just took a little notion
To fly across the ocean

They call me the midnight Moses
I wish I was a forest ranger
