

My Time

The Dead Daisies

Laid down in the water, cleansed my empty soul
Been running round in circles trying to find a way I know
Born into the fire, it's still burning in my mind
But now its light is shining brighter, I can see the lights

I washed it all away
The memories and scars that change you
Now each passing day
I ain't wasting no more time, no

Now its my time
I'm living like I want to, yeah
It's my time

Keeping my eyes open, sometimes the path ain't clear
I stumbled through the crossroads with the devil in my ears
Crawling through temptation, with the sights upon the road
The longer way ain't wasting time, cause the glitter isn't gold

I push it all away
The people and the lies that break you
You know I can't deny
Been wasting so much time, yeah

Now its my time
I'm living like I want to, yeah
It's my time, my time

In your life
Don't be blind
Cause all that shines
May not be gold

I push it all away
The memories and scars that break you
You know I can't deny
Been wasting so much time, yeah

It's my time
I'm living like I want to, yeah
It's my time, oh
It's my time
I'm living like I want to, yeah
It's my time, my time
Yeah!
