

D.O.Y.A.

The Dead Rabbits

I'm sick of livin' in my darkest hour
Yea I was d.o.y.a
I'm sick of feelin' like all hope is gone
So it's time I pave the way

No goin' back to what it was before
No regrets, no remorse
I'm overdue for a change of course

So good riddance I see clearly now that you're gone
I'm movin' onward and upward and forward
I'll be the one laughing when it's all done

No goin' back to what it was before
No regrets, no remorse
I'm overdue for a change of course
No goin' back to what it was before
No regrets, no remorse
I'm overdue for a change of course

I was dead upon arrival
I was dead

No goin' back to what it was before
No regrets, no remorse
I'm overdue for a change of course
No goin' back to what it was before
No regrets, no remorse
I'm overdue for a change of course
