

Ghosts In My Bedroom

The Dead Rabbits

I cannot fucking breathe,
My lips are frozen shut,
I'm dying just to speak but I'm having no luck
I'm terrified by all these faceless shadows,
Clenching my throat like I'm hung from the gallows

There's ghosts in my bedroom,
Watching me as I fall asleep (they've got a hold on me)
They're standing over me as I dream
I can't move can barely scream,
Why are they haunting me?

I cannot take much more,
My body is drenched in sweat,
I shake myself awake but it's not over yet
They fill my mind with thoughts of death and sorrow,
I pray to who's listening that i'll see tomorrow

There's ghosts in my bedroom,
Watching me as I fall asleep (they've got a hold on me)
They're standing over me as I dream
I can't move can barely scream,
Why are they haunting me?

Leave me the fuck alone!

There's ghosts in my bedroom,
Watching me as I fall asleep (they've got a hold on me)
They're standing over me as I dream
I can't move can barely scream,
Why are they haunting me?
