

Man At War

The Dead Rabbitts

It's time to pick a side
If you don't then you might
End up being buried alive
It's a firefight
This is not what I wanted
Don't accept defeat
Stand up, get up,
You are close to the victory
Just breathe,
Just breathe
Inhale, exhale, repeat
Don't let this slip away,
Just gotta make the change

I was the bullet
They were the gun
Shot me out then they were done
An empty shell lyin' on the floor, reload
Bodies in their wake,
They'd say it all was a mistake
Now I'm a man at war
Not the man that you knew before

You cannot live your life
Feeling sorry for yourself,
You'll just end up paralyzed
Trapped inside your mind
That's no way to survive,
It's time to kill em all
Like bodies on the floor
Your thoughts and your denial
It's time to kill them all
Til there's nothing left to fall
Don't let this slip away
You gotta make the change

This is my motherfuckin time
I'll be revived
