

Nuthin but a Reject

The Dead Rabbits

All I need is the air I breathe, to get through anything
All I need are the ones by me, who kill my misery
I don't need you, holding me down
Can you feel the earth shaking?
I'm breakin' out of this coffin underground

Don't try to speak I know exactly what you're thinkin'
My head, in over my head
You've always said that I was nuthin' but a reject
You're no friend, You're no friend to me so please relax. (Please Relax)
I'm moving on not looking back, you're now my past

I don't need your hostility, you're just another jealous enemy
Your opinion means nothing, just let me be
I don't need you holding me down, can you see the wall's crumbling!
I'm breakin' out of this prison they call doubt

Don't try to speak I know exactly what you're thinkin'
My head, in over my head
You've always said that I was nuthin' but a reject
You're no friend, You're no friend to me so please relax. (Please Relax)
I'm moving on not looking back, you're now my past

To me, you're dead and buried, your memory is fading beneath my feet
To me, you're dead and buried, your memory is fading beneath my feet

Don't try to speak I know exactly what you're thinkin'
My head, in over my head
You've always said that I was nuthin' but a reject
You're no friend, You're dead to me!

Don't try to speak I know exactly what you're thinkin'
My head, in over my head
You've always said that I was nuthin' but a reject
You're no friend, You're no friend to me!
You're dead and buried, your memory is fading beneath my feet
