

Sleep the Night Away

The Dead Rabbits

Confined to walls that are closing in on me,
Left alone to the evening's pain and misery.
I can sit here begging please,
But it won't help anything,
Guess we're meant to live our lives alone.

And I won't take the chance to live my life,
When I can barely open up inside.

Let me sleep the night,
Let me sleep the night away,
Let me sleep the night,
Let me sleep the night away.

Confined by the tearing of my heart and soul,
Told to be on fire but I'm stuck with bitter cold,
I can sit here begging please,
Take away my misery,
I can't go on living life alone.

And I won't take the chance to live my life,
When I can barely open up inside.

Let me sleep the night,
Let me sleep the night away,
Let me sleep the night,
Let me sleep the night away.

Bend me, break me, bleed me dry,
I sure hope you're satisfied,
Let me sleep the night,
Let me sleep the night away.

Let me sleep the night,
Let me sleep the night away,
Let me sleep the night,
Let me sleep the night away.

Bend me, break me, bleed me dry,
I sure hope you're satisfied,
Let me sleep the night,
Let me sleep the night away.

Let me sleep the night,
Let me sleep the night away,
Let me sleep the night,
Let me sleep the night away.
