

Victim of Circumstance

The Dead Rabbits

This life is unpredictable, it will beat you down
Challenge everything live on the edge
Always stand your ground

You have it deep inside, the power of the mind
To get what you want in life

One life one chance
Don't live it drowning in regret
One life one chance, Don't be a victim of circumstance

Hold your ground
Hold your ground

Back down to nothing
Fight for what you believe
Forgive all that's petty but remember everything

You have it deep inside the power of the mind
To get what you want in life
Appreciate the ride don't listen to the lies
And never waste your time

One life one chance
Don't live it drowning in regret
One life one chance, Don't be a victim of circumstance

Hold your ground
Always hold your ground
Hold your fucking ground

One life one chance
Don't live it drowning in regret
One life one chance, Don't be a victim of circumstance
One life one chance
Don't live it drowning in regret
One life one chance, Don't be a victim of circumstance

Hold your ground
Hold your ground
