

Girl

The Dear Hunter

You got your scene pinned underneath your thumb
And that's the way you need it, yeah!
You got the dirt that hurts on everyone
And all the people see it, yeah!

Every single heart would be for you alone if you would let it.
Starving eyes led by subtle lies.
No one knows the way you are when you're alone 'cus you wont let 'em.
Cut 'em off before they get too close to you!

Every single heart would be for you alone if you would let it.
Starving eyes led by subtle lies.
No one knows the way you are when you're alone 'cus you wont let 'em.
Cut 'em off before they get too close to you!

Don't let 'em in
Don't let 'em in
You gotta keep yourself composed.
So, don't let 'em in
Don't let 'em in
You gotta cut them off before they get too close to you.
