

Magic Beans

The Dear Hunter

Adrift and resigned
Through the passing of time
Though it's easy to whine
"If this was designed
There seems no reason for such struggling."

We all keep stumbling on
In spite of all that ails us
We keep prevailing
Even if the darkness doesn't call for the dawn
When tragedy's aligning
You gotta keep on shining

Feels like a lifetime
Of toeing the line
So, what will you grow, now
From these magic beans...

Prepare, 'cause you might
Find the stalks are stampeding for the sky
Lifting you higher than ever
You dreamt that you could be

We all keep stumbling on
In spite of all that ails us
We keep prevailing
Even if the darkness doesn't call for the dawn
When tragedy's aligning
Shine on
