

Is This All That I Came For?

The Delgados

Come here every day for you to bore me
You oblige but care even less than me
Can anyone within your walls engage me?
There's no one in your world I want to hear

Is this all that I came for?
Is this all that I came for?

Dirty hands shape the keenest minds
What could you achieve if you would try?
Any brain you can spark the light
But all you ever do is run from fights

Can't you see that this is one of many Situations where I must concede
I don't appear by magic every morning
And then disappear at three

Is this all that I came for?
Is this all that I came for?

Dirty hands shape the keenest minds
What would you achieve if you would try?
Any brain you can spark the light
But all you ever do is run from fights

Dirty hands shape the keenest minds
What would you achieve if you would try?
Any brain you can spark the light
But all you ever do is run the fights

I'm a life and I need your time
Even with a temperament like mine
Maybe you could just save my life
Chances are that I'm not worth this strife
