

Under Canvas Under Wraps

The Delgados

And I don't know what I'm sticking around for
Take a dandy I've been standing in for
Everybody rise at dark of rule
Take a trip up to the sticks survivor
Conversation with the hicks a diver

Since I lost my worry stand
Now I've got to worry some

What's your middle name?
I haven't got one
It's not quite the same
He's missed a sure shot
Your playing back-street games
I haven't got one

Take a trip across the ocean freeway
Rubber suited convoluted always
Everybody rise at dark of rule
Take a trip up to the sticks survivor
Conversation with the hicks a diver

Since I lost my worry stand
Now I've got to worry some

What's your middle name?
I haven't got one
It's not quite the same
He's missed a sure shot
Your playing back seat games
I haven't got one

Since I lost my lucky stand
Now I've got to worry some

What's your middle name?
I haven't got one
It's not quite the same
He's missed a sure shot
Your playing back seat games
I haven't got one
You're kissing all the dames
He's missed a sure shot
You're setting up to gain
Missed a sure shot
You're setting up to fame
Missed a sure shot
You're stealing all the names
He's missed a sure shot
You're swinging with your fame
Missed a sure shot
