

If You Move I'll Fall

The Dells

Please, please don't go
Don't go like this
Maybe, maybe we can find another way
Some kinda way
But at least let's try

Because if you move I'll fall
I'm leaning on you, you baby, oh baby
If you move I'll fall
I'm leaning on you, you baby, oh baby

If I seem like I'm king of the world
Remember it was you who gave me my crown
If you think, I've gone out of your reach
Step back, step back
Watch me tumble down, down, down

If you move I'll fall
I'm leaning on you, you baby, you baby, oh baby
If you move I'll fall
I'm leaning on you, you baby, you baby, oh baby

Now you can go if you stop lovin' me
But don't go on thinkin' my love has changed
Sometimes a man fails to show what he feels
But if you go then you'll know by the pain I feel

If you move I'll fall
I'm leaning on you, you baby, you baby, oh baby
If you move I'll fall
I'm leaning on you, you baby, you baby, oh baby

Girl, don't you know how I feel, can't you see it
In my eyes, do I have to cry, do I have to get down
On my knees and plead to you

Just like Humpty Dumpty
Sitting on the wall
I'll come down, down, down
Watch me fall, fall, fall

If you move I'll fall
I'm leaning on you, you baby, you baby, oh baby
If you move I'll fall
I'm leaning on you, you baby, you baby, oh baby
