

Overnight (Something So Right Went So Wrong)

The Dells

Overnight
Something so right went so wrong
Now she's gone, yeah she's gone
Overnight
Something so right went so wrong
Now she's gone, yeah she's gone

It must be a nightmare
And by morning, my pain will be gone
I'll wake up and find you
Lying where you belong

But I'm not fooling myself
Each tears are for real
And echoes of my emptiness
Is one certain fact that I can't conceal

Overnight
Something so right went so wrong
Now she's gone, yeah she's gone
Overnight
Something so right went so wrong
Now she's gone, yeah she's gone

Our love was all over
Almost before we begin
I held you, I lost you girl
I saw life slip right through my hands

Now as the wheel falls apart
I can only call your name
As people, a sympathy step at the despair
Of a man filled with pain

Overnight
Something so right went so wrong
Now she's gone, yeah she's gone
Overnight
Something so right went so wrong
Now she's gone, yeah she's gone

Girl I don't know who one to blame
Only that I'm alone
Wishing that I had one more chance
Now that I know
How it feels when she's gone

Overnight
Something so right went so wrong
Now she's gone, yeah she's gone
Overnight
Something so right went so wrong
Now she's gone, yeah she's gone
Overnight
Something so right went so wrong
Now she's gone, yeah she's gone
Overnight

Something so right went so wrong
Now she's gone, yeah she's gone
