

All is Quiet

Devil Makes Three

I can see the storm is raging
And the wind that builds within
I can watch the water open
It's mouth so wide to take you in

All is quiet, no one can tell
All is quiet, deep in your heart there is a well

Oh, the rain, is steady falling
Listen how the rivers rise
I can hear the lightning callin'
And I can see the darkened skies

All is quiet, no one can tell
All is quiet, deep in your heart there is a well
Deep in your heart there is a well

Behind your eyes, occurrence movin'
Behind your eyes, a wind that turns
Behind your eyes, a fire blazin'
Behind you eyes, a forest burns

All is quiet, no one can tell
All is quiet, deep in your heart there is a well
Deep in your heart there is a well
Deep in your heart there is a well
There is a well, there is a well
