

Paint My Face

Devil Makes Three

Come paint my face
Come take my hand
I do not wish you
To understand
Someday you too
Will go to war
And by that time may you not fear death anymore

Fortune may hold you
She's not your friend
Kind words spoken
Bows deepened
Foulest creature may wear the sweetest smile
O do not fear for I will see you in a while

Come paint my face
Come take my hand
I do not wish you
To understand
Someday you too
Will go to war
And by that time may you not fear death anymore

Eyes upon you
Through the years
All of your troubles
All of your fear
Always watching
Always see
I am you now and you are me

If I should fall you take my sword
All that is mine will be yours
Do not fear those we leave behind
The blood that runs in your veins, it is mine

Come paint my face
Come take my hand
I do not wish you
To understand
Someday you too
Will go to war
And by that time may you not fear death anymore
Yeah by that time may you not fear death anymore

I am a stone fallin' through black water
On the bottom I start again
I am a stone fallin' through black water
My fall it never ends
My fall it never ends

Come paint my face
Come take my hand
I do not wish you
To understand
Someday you too
Will go to war

And by that time may you not fear death anymore

Come paint my face

Come take my hand

I do not wish you

To understand

Someday you too

Will go to war

And by that time may you not fear death anymore

And by that time may you not fear death anymore

And by that time may you not fear death anymore□
