The Devil Wears Prada

It's so hard to recognize
That these diamonds fail to glow
Take pills to ease my mind
As long as I don't feel alone

In debt to become incomplete
Step back 'till we hear the song repeat
Watch as I become obsolete
Step back and

Welcome to the way down
Keep on telling, selling me a way out
Another offer of a faultless life now
But I think I'll just keep it inside
Stitch it up and wear it with pride

What's fake is always on my mind
Like money makes the rivers flow
Contact the sacred valley
Let it know, all its trees must go

In debt to become incomplete
Step back 'till we hear the song repeat
Watch as I become obsolete
Step back and

Welcome to the way down
Keep on telling, selling me a way out
Another offer of a faultless life now
But I think I'll just keep it inside
Stitch it up and wear it with pride

Welcome to the way down

They enforce that you don't matter
Man's horns dictate thereafter
But I'll fight, have a chance at this Fight the chains, fight the engine's hiss

Step back
Step back and

Welcome to the way down (way down)
Keep on telling, selling me a way out (way out)
Another offer of a faultless life now (life now)
But I think I'll just keep it inside
Stitch it up and wear it with pride
