

For You

The Devil Wears Prada

Maybe I'm out of my mind, but it's fine
I'm used to the way that it feels when the room is on fire
Uh, huh
At least I can say that I try

I do it for you, you
I do it for you, you

I would walk any road
(I would walk any road)
If you tell me you need me, there's no place that I wouldn't go
Even though you'd leave me for dead in the cold

Yeah, I would take a bullet for you
Stare death right in the soul
Kick me down, break my bones
(Kick me down, break my bones)
'Cause even after this life

I do it for you, you
I do it for you, you

You can bury me, and I'll leave flowers for you at my tomb
My tomb
I do it for you
I do it for you

I could bring the world to you, but what is it worth?
When everything I give to you just dies in the dirt

Like a shadow
Like a ghost
Everything I give to you just
Dies in the dirt
Dies in the dirt

I do it for you, you
I do it for you, you
You can bury me, and I'll leave flowers for you at my tomb
My tomb
I do it for you, you

I do it for you
I do it for you
I do it for you
