

Hallucinate

The Devil Wears Prada

What's real?
What's fake?
Black temple, hallucinate
What's real?
What's fake?
Black temple, hallucinate

Called awake by another migraine
Countless needles slowly penetrate

What's real?
What's fake?
Black temple, hallucinate
Impending red hallway
Black temple, hallucinate

I've been forced into the depths
Of agony

Frozen in sickness
No one beside me
(Can't find the) Can't find the painkiller
Can't numb the ache (Can't numb the ache)
Arcane existence
Years washed away

What's real?
What's fake?
Black temple, hallucinate
Impending red hallway
Black temple, hallucinate

I've been forced into the depths
Of agony
Blood pulsing like the light in the hallway
I'd do anything
For some kind of relief
I'd do anything
I'd do anything

One thousand days
The loop repeats
One thousand days
Chained to this disease

What's real?
What's fake?
Black temple, hallucinate
Black temple, hallucinate

What's real?
What's fake?
Black temple, hallucinate
Impending red hallway
Black temple, hallucinate

I've been forced into the depths

Of agony
Blood pulsing like the light in the hallway
I'd do anything
For some kind of relief
I'd do anything
I'd do anything
