Lock & Load

The Devil Wears Prada

It's hard to name a tragedy when it keeps repeating
It's hard to name a tragedy: constantly defeated

Why can't a child walk down the street?
Slow motion bullets
Another slaughter every week
Slow motion bullets

Mothers, fathers, don't you know the numbers?
Mothers, fathers, don't you know?

Murder speeds out the chamber with fury and vengeance
There's no excuse for it, this senseless violence

That gun is a tragedy, on and on and on
Buy it background check free, on and on and on Why can't a child walk down the street? On and on Another slaughter every week. Slow motion bullets

For the love of God, no more lock and load
For the love of God, no more lock and load

For the love of God, no more lock and load
For the love of God, no more
