

My Paradise

The Devil Wears Prada

Oh, yup, okay

They said that heaven was right above the clouds
I pretended, another face in the crowd
What's the point of a race that we all lose?
Can't seem to get through

What if I just sit back and let this life pass me by?
'Cause there's something about waiting that makes me feel alive
I'm done searching for things I'll never find
Maybe this mediocrity is my paradise

My paradise

My expectations only brought me
Devastation
Reflecting off my youth
Can't seem to get through

What if I just sit back and let this life pass me by?
'Cause there's something about waiting that makes me feel alive
I'm done searching for things I'll never find
Maybe this mediocrity is my paradise

My paradise
Oh

Like a routine ill-intended, I did my best to serve
Unseen, can't defend it, I swear I did the work
Breathe in, say goodbye, now this is farewell
This is farewell
Until next time

Like a routine ill-intended, I did my best to serve
I just sit back and let this life pass me by
'Cause there's something about waiting that makes me feel alive
Unseen, can't defend it, I swear I did the work
I'm done searching for things I'll never find
Breathe in, say goodbye until next time
Maybe this mediocrity is my paradise
