

When You're Gone

The Devil Wears Prada

When you're gone
The color in my vision starts to drain
I can't see the sky behind the rain
Wonder who you're with and what they say
What they say

When you're gone
Every second stretches 'til it breaks
I've been giving more than I can take
Disconnected from the life we made
That we made

Can you feel me? I reach for you
Always, we'll be better soon
We'll be better
We'll be better soon

I know that it hurts, lost count of the days
Two sides of the earth, can you feel me?
I know that it hurts, lost count of the days
Two sides of the earth, can you feel me?

Bring it back
I know that it hurts, lost count of the days
Two sides of the earth

Can you feel me? I reach for you
Always, we'll be better soon
We'll be better
We'll be better soon
We'll be better
We'll be better
Bring it back

Can you feel me?
