

Five Miles to Midnight

The Devlins

you can save me just before i fall c'mon baby i'm waitin' for y our call you're a stranger and you can make me anyone five mile s to midnight when you comin' home i miss the urgency i get whe n we're alone you come out of nowhere you go back on your own i 've wasted too much time i'm not wastin' any more i need to see your eyes but you're out of sight our world's getting smaller and time is getting tight communication won't keep me warm toni ght oh no five miles to midnight when you comin' home i miss th e urgency i get when we're alone you come out of nowhere you go back on your own i've wasted too much time i'm not wastin' any more feeling high not so high to please (i'm not quite sure ab out this line) feeling high five miles to midnight when you com ing home i miss the urgency i get when we're alone you come out of nowhere you go back on your own i've wasted too much time i 'm not wasting any more i'm not wasting any more i'm not wastin g any more
