

Snowbirds

The Devlins

wanna go where it's warm 24 hours a day I wanna take you there Where there's no winter And the ice will melt in your glass I'm gonna take you there I wanna see those eyes brighter than they 've ever been Your beauty never faded Not for me You're my Joan of Arc From the trailer park, yeah You're my sweet 16 That's w hat you've always been And we're snowbirds heading south again Yeah, we're snowbirds heading south again Seen some things, you and I We've said hello, we've waved goodbye We won't need a wi tness When we say "I do" for the last time You always know my a im is true That's no lie If there's a hurricane I'll shelter yo u from the drivin' rain It's so cold here it's hard to think ab out Turquoise, lilac and pink But we're snowbirds heading south again Yeah, we're snowbirds heading south again There'll be no stops along the way Because the sun sets fast at the end of th e day You're my Joan of Arc From the trailer park You're my swe et 16 You're all I've ever been And we're snowbirds heading sou th again Yeah, we're snowbirds heading south again You're my sn owbird You're my snowbird I wanna go where it's warm 24 hours a day
