

Adeline

The Dip

Adeline, I wonder what you're thinking
Behind those eyes
I can see your gears spinning fast
Adeline, I understand your inhibitions
But listen to me please
And I will ease your mind

Cause I've had a lot of time
To think about what I'd say to you
Baby there's nothing to say
But if you'd be so kind as to listen
To my last confession
I love you, I love you Adeline

Adeline, I hope you really hear me
Cause I love you dearly
And I need you to know
Adeline, I can't leave without you
So please let me tell you
What I came here to say
Won't you listen to me

Cause I've had a lot of time
To think about what I'd say to you
Baby you're right (baby you're right) and there's nothing to say
But if you'd be so kind as to listen
To my last confession baby

(I love you) I love you baby
(I need you) I need your love (Adeline) Adeline
(I love you) I love you
(I need you) I need you, Adeline
(I love you) I love you
(I need you) I need you baby, Adeline
(I love you) Oh
(I need you) I need you, Adeline
