The Dip

If it feels like the world is burnin' down
It's 'cause it is
If it feels like there's something goin' around
It's 'cause there is
If it tastes like there's poison in the water
It's 'cause there is
And it seems like the signs are gettin' stronger
So you need to ask yourself again...

How can it be, do my eyes deceive me?
Something's amiss, something ain't right
Just when the time to fight was upon us
No one showed up, no, hear not a sound

If it feels like the temperature is rising
It's 'cause it is
And there's bound to be a change on the horizon
So you need to ask yourself again...

How can it be, do my eyes deceive me?
Something's amiss, something ain't right
Just when the time to fight was upon us
No one showed up, no, hear not a sound
How can it be, do my eyes deceive me?
Something's amiss, baby something ain't right
Just when the time to fight was upon us
No one showed up, no, hear not a sound

(Ooh! Ooh!)
Ohh oh how can it be, do my eyes deceive me?
Something's amiss, baby something ain't right
Just when the time to fight was upon us
No one showed up, no, hear not a sound

(Feel's like the world's burnin' down!)
Oh burnin' down
(Feel's like there's something goin' around!)
Something goin' around
(Feel's like the temperature is rising!)
Higher, higher, higher
(Got to be a change on the horizon!)
Got to be a change
(Feel's like the world's burnin' down!)
'Cause it is
(Feel's like there's something goin' around!)
(Seems like the signs are gettin' stronger!)
(Can't stand on the side any longer!)
