

Humble Hands

The Dip

I could survive on only your ginkgo eyes staring back at me You're simply divine, made from a stardust melody. Baby you're heavenly

But you never take your flowers
You give away every single stem
But they say that humble hands
Clap loudest, clap loudest

Cool as a breeze, you walk through life so gracefully
And I wonder if you even know, that wherever you go, people also see what I see

But you never take your flowers
You give away every single stem
And they say that humble hands
Clap loudest, clap loudest

(You never take your flowers...) You never take your flowers
(You never take your flowers...) Wish you would take these flowers
(You never take your flowers...) Humble hands clap loudest
(You never take your flowers...) But you never take your flowers
(You never take your flowers...)
(You never take your flowers...) Humble hands clap loudest
(You never take your flowers...) But you never take your flowers
(You never take your flowers...)
