

Fear & Love

The Dirty Heads

Fear and love
Sometimes people tend to mix it up
Tell me which side are you standing on
You can complicate it all you want
But in the end it's only fear and love

I wrap my heart up in sage
I am anointing the skin
A flower braid in your hair
Your tongue is wet to the wind
And if the water is clean,
That's a good place to begin
To wash away all the fear and let the laughter back in

So tell me what are you running from?
If we don't stop it goes on and on
So tell me what are you running from?
'Cause in the end it's only
Fear and love
Sometimes people tend to mix it up
Tell me which side are you standing on
You can complicate it all you want
But in the end it's only fear and love

Yeah, I'm just out here catching feelings
Man I'm feeling right
Sexual healing in the morning ya that's Dolomite
Sometimes I lose my sight
Sometimes these dice ain't rolling right
But that's life ya that's good times
That's Jimmy Walker, that's dynamite
So tell me what are you running from?
If we don't stop it goes on and on
So tell me what are you running from?
Cause in the end it's only
Fear and love
Sometimes people tend to mix it up
Tell me which side are you standing on
You can complicate it all you want
But in the end it's only fear and love

Fear and Love
Sometimes people tend to mix it up
Tell me which side are you standing on
You can complicate it all you want
But in the end it's only fear and love
