

Visions

The Dirty Heads

I keep seeing visions of you
Visions of, visions of you
I keep getting stuck in this day
Stuck in this déjà-vu

It's like I'm never riding solo
I feel you walking in my shadow
Never hit me quite like that though
Cause now I'm under your spell
Late nights and I can't sleep
Choked up and I can't breathe
No one that can save me
Cause now I'm under your spell

I keep seeing visions of you
Visions of, visions of you
I keep getting stuck in this day
Stuck in this déjà-vu
Even in my darkest hour
Even when I know it can't be true
I keep seeing visions of you
Visions of, visions of you
Ooh...

I keep saying that I'm okay
They never go
So I pray
Dear lord, I hope that one day
I get you out of my head
Late nights and I can't sleep
Choked up and I can't breathe
No one that can save me
Cause now I'm under your spell

I keep seeing visions of you
Visions of, visions of you
I keep getting stuck in this day
Stuck in this déjà-vu
Even in my darkest hour
Even when I know it can't be true
I keep seeing visions of you
Visions of, visions of you
Ooh...

You're a mirage
It's all in my mind
That is just love playing tricks on my eyes
You're a mirage
It's all in my mind
Why can't I seem to let go
You're a mirage
It's all in my mind
That is just love playing tricks on my eyes
It's all in my mind

I keep seeing visions of you
Visions of, visions of you
I keep getting stuck in this day
Even when I know it can't be true
Visions of, visions of you
Ooh...

I keep seeing visions of you

Ooh...

I keep seeing visions of you
Visions of, visions of you
