

Always High

The Dirty Nil

Crash your car and spill your head on the roadside
You ain't had a single drink since 2005
But no worries I know what you're thinking

Ain't it a bitch
Leaving home for a job
That you loathe
You'll survive
Cause you're always high
You're always high

I remember when me and you were friends
You used to be capable of conversations
But now your eyes are dry
They're red and never wide
Open like your Miller Lite
But no worries man it's good to see you

Ain't it a bitch
Leaving home for a job
That you loathe
You'll survive
Then you run

The satellites are out tonight
And I feel pretty alright
I remember when you and me were friends
That don't mean a thing now baby does it?

Ain't it a bitch
Leaving home for a job
That you loathe
You'll survive
Cause you're always high
You're always high
Always high
