

Caroline

The Dirty Nil

First I thought I was
Doomed to darkness, lost
But your fiery night
Gave starved eyes light

But Caroline, I've done wrong
How I feel stained
My skin screams shame
Just as wilts all flowers
Time makes sweet things sour

But I know that
Lovers are lions, untamed
I know that
Lovers and lions live caged

My song is far from
Cleansing redemption
But your fiery night
Burned all in sight

But I know that
Lovers are lions, untamed
I know that
Lovers and lions live caged

Caroline, I've done wrong
