

So Busted

The Dirty Nil

I don't care about a fancy car
Unless it's taking me to you
And I don't care about how far you are
You know I'll always come through for you

I don't wanna miss another birthday party
Or any day in between
I picture us holding hands when we're older
Though it's probably just a dream

'Cause life is so busted
Life is so busted
My car is so busted
Life I'm so busted

And I just wanted to be loved by you, by you
I just wanted to be loved by you, by you
I just wanted to be loved by you, by you
I just wanted to be loved by you, by you
I just wanted to be loved by you
I just wanted to be loved by you, by you
I just wanted to be loved by you
I just wanted to be loved by you
