

Anthem For Bored Youth

The Divine Comedy

"Knowledge is a curse
But ignorance is worse"
I heard it said
Quote yourself if no one else will
I am not prepared
To stick my head above that parapet
No more
I'd rather be ignored

I could sing a biting satire or a farcical spoof
But what would be the use?
I could write a thousand verses of beautiful truths
But what would be the use?
It's just another anthem for bored youth

Have I writer's block?
Or have I just forgotten who I am?
Am I who I was when I began?
Here's a little game
How many times do I say "I"
In this song?
It's unlucky for some

I could sing a biting satire or a farcical spoof
But what would be the use?
I could write a thousand verses of beautiful truths
But what would be the use?
It's just another anthem for bored youth
