

My Happy Place

The Divine Comedy

When everything
Goes to shit
And everyone
Blames you for it
When good goes bad
Bad to worse
I go where I went first

I go to my happy place
I go to my happy place, yeah
I go where the mountains rise
On either side of a peaceful valley
I go where the gentle breeze
Blows through the trees and eases my mind

When everything
You have been Working hard
To achieve
Crashes down
Around your ears
It's time to disappear

And go to your happy place
I go to my happy place, yeah
I go where the mountains rise
On either side of a peaceful valley
I go where the gentle breeze
Blows through the trees and eases my mind

My happy place

But when at last
You find the one
And all your days
Are filled with sun
But it could all
Be snatched away
Where would I go
When you're my happy place

You're my happy place, yeah
Well I go where the mountains rise
On either side of a peaceful valley
I go where the gentle breeze
Blows through the trees and eases my
Eases my, eases my mind
Eases my mind
I go to my happy place, yeah
I go to my happy place, happy place
My happy place
