

Aha

The Do

It came up on a day I was having a nap
It came up on a day I was catching the gnats
It was a trap
Aha, aha, aha

It came up on a day I was patting the cat
A happy summer day, it was simple as that
It was a trap
Aha, aha, aha

This time
I fell in your lap aha
This time
Fell into your trap aha
I was hanging out with the boys
When you kicked me out

It came up on a day I was building with haste
A pretty sandcastle away from the waves
And then the rain poured down
Aha, aha, aha

You came up with a smile as I started to cry
I said I was alright
But you told me to cut the crap
Aha, aha, aha

This time you caught me alive, aha
I had my head in the clouds, aha
I thought no one could track me down
Till I got shot in the back, aha!

A little girl came and took me by the hand
I had no choice as she said she knew the way
A little girl said she wanted me to play
I had no choice or she said we would be late

Ok, I wasn't alright!
I had my head in the clouds
I was doing nothing at all till you
Shook me up
