

Bohemian Dances

The Dø

I don't want nobody to tell me what I did wrong or right
I have grown in patience you keep lecturing me day and night
Now you have no other choice it's my turn to decide
This can old be done the same with just a little far.

Look at the sunrise, Look at the moonlight
You're not in a hurry, it isn't the time.
I know what's best now, believe me the best is never around if you're trying too hard.
Look at yourself boy, Look at yourself boy, Look at yourself bo y
Whatever the price
As long as we're dancing bohemian dances
I know the answers are no longer far.

Totally freak out all over the place now.
As long as we're dancing we can't be mistaken
As long as we're dancing bohemian dances
I know the answers will pop in your heart.
Oh please don't try to make it worth this could ever become.
As long as we're dancing bohemian dances
I know the answers are no longer far.

I will doing my best boy, doing my best boy, doing my best boy,
Whatever the price
Doing my best boy, doing my best boy, doing my best boy
You might be surprise.
Doing my best boy, doing my best boy, doing my best boy,
Whatever the price

I don't want nobody to take me
For someone I am not
I'm just playing my own part
Don't blame me if i'm on the run.
Look at the sunrise, Look at the moonlight
You're not in a hurry, it isn't the time.
I know whats best now, believe me the best is never around if y ou're trying too hard.
Look at yourself boy, Look at yourself boy, Look at yourself bo
y
Whatever the price
As long as we're dancing bohemian dances
I know the answers are no longer far.
