Opposite Ways

The Dø

I have second thoughts I just cannot explain
Intermissions that keep stepping in the way
What if I was wrong when I abuse vulnerable hearts
What if I'm wrong to act like little lies don't hurt

Second thoughts I just cannot regress
Intuitions that keep keeping me awake
What if I was wrong to take for granted what comes free
What if I'm wrong to think there's nothing wrong with me

All trouble makers will shake the ground
And all double dealers will share the crown

Too

We're in a maze
Feeling the same
Sorry about this

We're in the crowd
Fooling around
Sorry about this

We're going home
Opposite ways
Facing the void

We're in a maze
Feeling the same
Sorry about this

I have second thoughts about what I confess
Strange reactions that just don't match with the rest
What if I turned all the offers down and cleaned the slate
What if I finally accepted my mistakes

Second thoughts about what I've just said
Did I mean that or was I backing out again?
What if I decided to be brutally sincere?
If I had balls enough to face persistent fears

All trouble makers will shake the ground
And all double dealers will share the crown

Too

We're in the maze
Feeling the same
Sorry about this

We're in the crowd
Fooling around
Sorry about this

We're going home
Opposite ways
Facing the void

We're in the a maze
Feeling the same
Sorry about this

Oh

We're in the maze
Feeling the same
Sorry about this

Ah ah

We're in the crowd
Fooling around
Sorry about this

We're going home
Opposite Ways
Facing the void

We're in the crowd
Fooling around
Sorry about this

Sorry about this [x10]
