

Taking my armor off
Sick of the same thing
Walking around the thought
No one's listening
1+1 is 4
Who's contesting?
That's not what it was

Look at the photograph
That's a fresh start
I'm not the only one
With revenge in my heart
1+1 is 4
If that's what you want
That's not what it was

Who took the cornerstone?
Held two pieces
Caught in a virtual one dimension
I'm not the killer that you're pretending
Turned out it wasn't what you were making
I will not have revenge

Look at the candy shop
No one's leaving
If you could make it stop
Would you grieve it?
The road to Hell is paved
With good inventions
Those are not my words

I'm not the one you want
Let that sink in
I was invulnerable then
Now I'm leaking
So much for the men
Worth repeating
That's not who I was

Who took the cornerstone?
Held two pieces
Caught in a virtual one dimension
I'm not the killer that you're pretending
Turned out it wasn't what you were thinking
I will not have revenge

I will not have revenge
