

What do I care
Whether you know my name
Memories rise and fall into random place

Could we turn it around? (Sure)
If it's feeling much more light

I can't believe it, is this really happening?
I can't believe it, is this really happening?
I can't I can't, I can't I can't
I can't I can't, I can't I can't

I can't I can't, I can't I can't
I can't I can't, I can't I can't
I can't I can't, I can't I can't
I can't I can't

Could we be stuck?
What if the other side
Fell on its head
Feeling too heavy
Could we be stuck?
Is this what you wanted for everyone?

Call it out
No one's there to arrive
Tell me something
What a waste of an ear
Call it out
Nobody's listening
Shut it out
Tired and broken ways of thinking
Keep it out of the storm
No one's wishing
You and I are the same
