

Maybe I Forgot

The Dodos

I was looking for a soundtrack to live by
Maybe I forgot
I could realize it back at the start
But now maybe I forgot

I was looking for a riff or a melody
Everything to hit right
I don't know if it's a curse or gift
Now that maybe it's all forgot

Fade into static days
Couldn't get it right
Waiting for the save
Is it coming?
Fade into static days
Are you holding tight?
What else could you feel?
Are we still right?

This notion's starting to recede
Maybe I forgot
What else could it be?
Strange voices pulling at the seams
Will they tear us apart?
Is that all we'll be?
Strange voids where nothing happens

I don't want to picture, just want a glimpse
Of the feeling that I forgot
I was looking for a way to a remedy
Maybe it's all for naught

Fade into static days
Couldn't get it right
Waiting for the save
Is it coming?
Fade into static days
Are you holding tight
What else could you feel?
Are we still right?

This notion's starting to recede
Maybe I forgot
What else could it be?
Strange voices pulling at the seams
Can they tear us apart?
Is that all we'll be?
Fool's notion calling back to me
And it tears us apart
Is that all we'll be?
Strange voids where nothing happens
