

To the fold I return
But it's not as it was
Instruments as they were
But the sound's not the same
To the fold I return
But it's not as it was
Instruments as they were
But the sound's not the same

Looking out ahead
The compromising looks like sedition
Out of the way
Cauterize it out of tradition

God is so out of fashion
God is so out of fashion
God is so out of fashion
Didn't they tell you

To the fold I return
But it's not as it was
Instruments as they were
But the sound's not the same
To the fold I return
But it's not as it was
Instruments as they were
But the sound's not the same

Looking out ahead
The compromising looks like sedition
Out of the way
Cauterize it out of tradition

Born out of two voices
Born out of two voices
Born out of two voices
Born out of two voices
