

Pale Horizon

The Dodos

Mirrors of each other
Have no end or beginning
Confiscate one another
Tangled up in the middle

Distance from the earth
Feels like a dead end
Distance from the earth
Feels like a dead end

Better get some distance between us
Step back a moment
Just need to see who we are
I only want to witness
Remember when we only wrote
Used to see the words before we could hear them
I can only see what you don't
And now we have a witness
Don't think I can let this go
Even if I've been here before
Does everyone already know
The places that we're heading
Even if this loop is closed
Think I gotta run it again
This can't be a dead end
This can't be a dead end

Am I staring at
Reflections of your mind?
Thought that we were
Way beyond the pale horizon
Are you looking back
I can't believe my eyes
All I ever wanted
Was to break this passage
