The Dodos

Living in another person's fantasy
Living in another person's fantasy
Living in another person's fantasy
Living in another person's...

And I get set, looking in Another circus
Amounts to nothing
Recognize
Going nowhere
You and I
Countless secrets
Innocence
Holding something
Reminisce

I could wait for heaven
And I could also hold you
I could wait for heaven
And I could also hold you
I could wait for heaven
And I could also hold you
I could wait for heaven
And I could also hold you

I could wait and try to emulate your ways
It's never second nature
I could wait and try to emulate your ways
I'm always second to your nature

Living in another person's fantasy
Living in another person's fantasy
Living in another person's fantasy
(I could wait for heaven)
(And I could also hold you)
Living in another person's fantasy
(I could wait for heaven)
(And I could also hold you)
Living in another person's fantasy
(I could wait for heaven)
(And I could also hold you)
Living in another person's fantasy
(I could wait for heaven)
(And I could also hold you)
