

What are you going after?
Wanting to win
Always moving much faster
When moments are still
Are you fighting opinions?
Turning you in
Are you waiting for laughter?
Lost to the wind

Is that what you wish, honestly?
Is that what you wish, honestly?
Is that what you wish, honestly?
Is that what you wish, honestly?

I was thinking of us
Back there lost in the hour
Was it turning corrupt?
Did it, honestly?
So much counted on this
When it started to slip
Didn't know who I was
Did you, honestly?
And I'm still looking back
Always reading the past
Like it's some sort of fact
Was it, honestly?
I was thinking too much
All this talk turns to thought
Cut it out there it was
Always, honestly

Who are you gunning after?
Trying to kill
Are you watching your neighbor?
Starting to spin
Are you out on the pasture?
Or over the hill?
Always turning a favor into a guilt

Is that what you think, honestly?
Is that what you think, honestly?
Is that what you think, honestly?
Is that what you think, honestly?

I was thinking of us
Back there lost in the hour
Was it turning corrupt?
Did it, honestly?
So much counted on this
When it started to slip
Didn't know who I was
Did you, honestly?
And I'm still looking back
Always reading the past
Like it's some sort of fact
Was it, honestly?
I was thinking too much

All this talk turns to thought
Cut it out there it was
Always, honestly

It was an offer to
It was an offer to be someone else
I only wanted to
I only wanted to be a version of something
