

Bitches Street

The Dogma

You can't take a different way
Someone planned all your day
If you are only taking shit
Welcome back to Bitches Street

Someone told me "You can't escape!"
Someone told me "Don't be enraged!"
Now I'm feeling old and strong
My whole life is going wrong

Go your way
Keep your fuckin' face far from my eyes
Play my game
I will come to take you...

You can't take a different way
Someone planned all your day
If you are taking all their shit
Welcome back to Bitches Street

Someone told me "You are gone!"
Not the place where I belong

Go your way
Keep your fuckin' face far from my eyes
Play my game
I will come to take you...

You can't take a different way
Someone planned all your day
If you are taking all their shit
Welcome back to Bitches Street

Hey, There is nothing you can take
That's not my way
Hey, You can't feel free in that street
That's not my way

You can't take a different way
Someone planned all your day
If you are taking all their shit
Welcome back to Bitches Street
