

So Wrong It's Right

The Dollyrots

Instead of just calling ahead
You should be calling and making amends
So should I be playing nice
Or should you be ready to say you're sorry twice
Haven't you heard a word I've said
Thinkin' that that I'm givin' you a green not red cos
It's so wrong it's right
Nothing's ever gonna change my mind
So come on and try
Do you really wanna lose a fight
You shouldn't be in my neighborhood (Got in trouble)
I should've known you'd be up to no good (Burst my bubble)

So where does it go from here
Leaving lipstick on your mirror
Your sweat tastes like my tears, my tears
Whatchoo gonna do (Cat got your tongue)
Whatchoo gonna say (Oh how this web is spun)
How's this gonna be (Cat got your tongue)
Do you really wanna play (You're not the only one)
What the Hell was that Don't give me no crap
