

Just Shopping (Not Buying Anything)

The Dramatics

Oh baby...

I'd like to make you, queen of my castle, yeah baby
Give you all the things that your heart desires
But you said you were, just shopping not buying anything
All you said you were doing was just shopping not buying anything
Oh oh oh yeah

I'd like to sit with you, by ocean
And put the seashells by your ear
And listen to love's potion
But you said you were just shopping not buying anything
You said you said oh yes you did
You were just shopping and not buying anything
Oh baby baby, oh oh yeah

Just shopping not buying anything
You told me, you told me you were
Just shopping not buying anything
I wanted to just you the world but baby you were
Just shopping not buying anything
It's a shame, it's a shame, it's a shame, oh yeah
Just shopping not buying anything

Oh your looking so good to me
All I can do is tremble
Still I'm in love with you
Even though I can't get your number
But you say you were just shopping not buying anything
It's a shame, it's a shame, it's a shame...
Just shopping not buying anything

I couldn't sell her anything
