

Foolish Reasons

The Dreggs

Come down here
Who you are
Break the feeling

Ooh, ooh, ooh

Stay the night
And I'll hold my head up high
Let's start a fire, put it out
So we can turn it upside down
Let's start a fire, put it out
We don't know what we're talking about

Ooh, ooh, ooh

Don't shed a tear, 'cause I'm still here
Doesn't please me to admit
But we're not perfect

Don't break your back just tryna get me
You'll only confuse yourself
With my foolish reasons, my foolish pride
Don't break your back just tryna please me
You'll only confuse yourself
With my foolish reasons, my foolish heart

Don't fly away, my dear
Let's try to heal from here
It'll come and it'll fall
It'll break you enough to a crawl
Let's start a fire, put it out
So we can turn it into a draw

Ooh, ooh, ooh

Let's start a fire, put it out
So we can understand through it all

Don't shed a tear, 'cause I'm still here

Don't break your back just tryna get me
You'll only confuse yourself
With my foolish reasons, my foolish pride
Don't break your back just tryna please me
You'll only confuse yourself
With my foolish reasons

Don't break your back just tryna get me
You'll only confuse yourself
With my foolish reasons, my foolish pride
Don't break your back just tryna please me
You'll only confuse yourself
With my foolish reasons, my foolish heart

You'll only confuse yourself
With my foolish reasons, my foolish heart
